

34th Annual Salmonid Restoration Conference

April 6-9, 2016 at the Fortuna River Lodge

Salmonid Restoration in Working Watersheds

Field Tours

- Eel River Delta and Estuary
- Lower Mattole River and Estuary
- Lower Klamath and Strawberry Creek, National Park Service Tour
- Headwaters to Bay: Tour of Arcata's Urban / Wildland Restoration Program
- Headwaters Forest Reserve Upland Restoration to Tidewaters of Salmon Creek
- Fish Passage and Tidegates Restoration in Humboldt Bay and the Mad River Watershed

Workshops

- Evolving Science and Policy to Restore Streams
Using Instream Obstructions and Beaver Dam Analogues
- Design and Engineering of Off-channel Habitat and Large Wood Projects
- Instream Flow Enhancement and Groundwater Recharge Planning and Implementation
- Let's Get Connected — Tools for Getting Meaningful Public Input and Participation

For more info: please visit www.calsalmon.org

photo by Thomas B. Dunklin

